

Tennis Club Manager Role

Introduction about Lansdowne LTC

Lansdowne Lawn Tennis Club (LLTC) is Ireland's oldest tennis club, founded in the 1875 and boasts a brand new clubhouse facility which opened in November 2016. We are a members' club catering for all levels of tennis, ranging from Class 1 through to Class 7/Non-League players to those who have yet to hold a tennis racket. We have 11 tennis courts suitable for year-round weather conditions. Our club is very active with a large array of social tennis functions organised throughout the year open to all levels. We also hold Club Championships for both junior and senior members and we are a member of Dublin Lawn Tennis Council (DLTC), participating competitively in the inter-club Winter League, Summer League, Mixed League, Senior League and Floodlight League competitions. We are governed by a Committee which meets on a monthly basis.
